QCH is a multi-service, community-based organization whose mission is to provide individuals and families with the tools to enrich their lives and build healthy, inclusive communities. QCH programs are in some of New York City's most racially and ethnically diverse communities, with high concentrations of low-income, working poor and new immigrant or first generation Americans, speaking more than 100 different languages. QCH serves residents of all ages, races and ethnicities while supporting the viability of neighborhoods and Queens as a whole. Through a broad network of 42 programs operating out of 25 program sites, we help Queens residents to thrive in school and make healthy life choices, to succeed in educating themselves and become engaged neighbors, to stabilize their housing situation, and to make the most of their senior years.

Children & Youth: QCH works within 17 NYC public schools to develop programs that support student learning, provide access to arts and STEM content, curb dropout rates, and help struggling students to achieve a high school diploma. people receive college, career, and employment counseling from us every year.

Families: Each year, QCH helps more than 1,000 families avoid evictions from their home, and we work with tenants, landlords, and homeowners to ensure ongoing neighborhood safety and stability.

Older Adults: We serve more than 6,000 seniors annually, providing access to public benefits, home delivered meals, and opportunities for health, education and socialization. Our programs help older adults to maintain their independence and dignity during their later years and, for those who choose, to remain in their homes.

Immigrants: Last year, we assisted more than 1800 immigrants on their path to English literacy and U.S. citizenship, while helping to become engaged and contributing neighbors in their new home.

LGBT Community: LGBTQ youth find care, support and acceptance through our Generation Q program, while LGBT older adults gather at our warm and welcoming Queens Center for Gay Seniors. These programs are just two examples of how we work to help marginalized individuals or groups feel accepted and included in the greater community.
